

MUSIC BY THE COMMONS

Patron: The BISHOP of SOUTHWARK

'Evening in the Palace of Reason'

Johann Sebastian Bach
at the court of King Frederick the Great

FOLLIA AT MUSIC BY THE COMMONS

William Summers (baroque flute), Diane Moore (baroque violin),
Samuel Stadlen (viola da gamba), Yeo Yat-Soon (harpsichord)

In 1747 the aging J S Bach visited the court of Frederick the Great in Berlin. It was a momentous occasion which prompted the composition of Bach's great late work The Musical Offering. This concert marks that occasion with music by CPE Bach, Benda, Janitsch, Frederick the Great himself and culminating in the monumental Trio Sonata from The Music Offering.

Saturday 9th January 2016

7:30 pm

St John's Church

Spencer Hill, Wimbledon, SW19 4NZ

Admission: £12, £10 (concessions) at the door.

Full-time Students and Pupils FREE

Information on 020 8879 1498 www.musicbythecommons.org.uk

This is the fourth MBTC Concert of our 29th season
The rest of this season is arranged right through to June

See our website www.musicbythecommons.org.uk