Yeo Yat-Soon was born in London of Chinese parents. He studied at King's College London, from where he holds a Master's degree in Historical Musicology. He also pursued postgraduate studies in Harpsichord and Conducting at the Guildhall School of Music, where he won the Raymond Russell Prize for Harpsichord. He performs widely as a harpsichordist, specializing in giving concerts in historical buildings. Regular venues include the Chapel Royal at Hampton Court, Handel House Museum, the Horniman Museum and Strawberry Hill House in the UK, and Kammersaal Friedenau and the Instrument Museum in Berlin. Yat-Soon also specializes in baroque opera and has conducted for London Baroque Opera, City of London Festival and Opéra de Bauge. He plays with the ensembles Follia, the Stanesby Players and Camerata Berolinensis (Berlin). He has broadcast for BBC Radio 3 and Classic FM and for BBC1, BBC4 and Channel 4 television.

Yat-Soon has had a long association with education, having been Director of Music at St Paul's Girls' School and The Lady Eleanor Holles School. He currently teaches Harpsichord, coaches chamber music and lectures on Performance Practice at the University of Birmingham and teaches A level Music at Ashbourne Independent Sixth Form College in London.
