Yeo Yat-Soon studied at King's College London and the Guildhall School of Music, where he won the prestigious Russell Prize for Harpsichord. He performs widely as a soloist, specializing in historic venues. Recent concert venues have include Handel House Museum, Horniman Museum, the Chapel Royal at Hampton Court, St George's Hanover Square, Strawberry Hill House, Forty Hall, Orleans House, and the Musical Instrument Museum and Kammeraal Friedenau in Berlin. Yat-Soon also specializes in baroque opera and has conducted for London Baroque Opera, City of London Festival and Opéra de Baugé, for whom he will conduct Monteverdi's L'Incoronazione di Poppea later this year. He plays with the ensembles Follia, The Stanesby Players and Camerata Berolinensis (Berlin). He has broadcast for BBC Radio 3, BBC4, Channel 4 and Classic FM. Yat-Soon has also had a distinguished association with music education, having been Director of Music at The Lady Eleanor Holles School and St Paul's Girls' School.

This is the inaugural concert in an extended series entitled Memento Mori Froberger 2016 in which Yeo Yat-Soon will explore the extraordinarily original music of Froberger to commemorate the 400th anniversary his birth. Concerts will take place in the London area, Oxford and East Anglia.
